COURSE PACKET

The books are all required and are available in paperback at the University Book Store. The books are all on reserve at Helen C. White Library. There is also a small reader of required documents and articles available at the Copy Center in the basement of the Humanities Building. These readings are marked R>.

This course will introduce you to the major social, intellectual, political, and religious developments in Europe from the Renaissance to the fall of Napoleon. We will focus on the lives of everyday people as well as on the most important events and cultural trends in European history.

There will be three lectures and one discussion section per week. You will be expected to attend both lecture and section and to participate in discussion section. You should complete the weekly reading assignments before section each week. There will be one two-hour final exam and two in-class exams.

All students will also write a 3-4 page paper based on the reading in the early part of the course. Four-credit students will also be required to write a 6-8 page term paper on a topic chosen by you in consultation with the T. A. or with me. Final grades will be based as follows. For 3-credit students: 15% section participation; 20% each of two in-class exams; 15% short paper; 30% final exam. For 4-credit students: 15% section participation; 15% each of two in-class exams; 10% short paper; 20% long paper; 25% final exam.
