The crusades were a new type of war believed by participants and contemporaries to be not only just, but also holy. The rallying cry of the First Crusade was “God wills it!” In this class we will study the political and military history of crusades, analyze the ideas that made crusades possible and discuss experiences of those involved in or affected by them. About four weeks of class will be dedicated to a game during which students will recreate the war council of Acre of 1148 (for more information on Reacting to the Past (RTTP) games see https://reacting.barnard.edu/ )

READING ASSIGNMENTS:
Please bring all of the primary sources assigned for that week to your discussion sections. The following primary sources are available at the University of Wisconsin bookstore and on reserve at the College Library (Helen C. White Hall, 600 North Park Street). If you wish, you can use different editions as long as you are aware of and accept the inconveniences this might cause you.

(1) Jay Rubenstein, The First Crusade. A Brief History with Documents (Bedford)
(2) Usama ibn Munqidh, The Book of Contemplation (Penguin)
(3) The Chronicle of the Third Crusade. The Itinerarium Peregrinorum et Gesta Regis Ricardi (Ashgate)
(4) Joinville and Villehardouin, Chronicles of the Crusades (Penguin)

TEXTBOOK
There is no textbook for this class. However, if you want a general review on the subject, you might want to consult one of the following:
- Jonathan Riley-Smith, The Crusades. A History
- Christopher Tyerman, God’s War: A New History of the Crusades

GRADING:
4 Short papers on assigned readings: 8% each (32% total)
3 Short papers on RTTP: 8% each (24% total)
One-page summary of Ronnie Ellenblum’s Talk: 4%
Final: 20%
Participation: 20%

SHORT PAPERS ON ASSIGNED READINGS:
You have to write FOUR short responses to questions based on the assigned readings. The essays should focus on the readings. Each response should be about 1000 words. It is entirely up to you to choose the questions that you want to answer. The papers are due in sections where the assigned readings are to be discussed. No later papers will be accepted. No electronic submissions will be accepted. You cannot write an extra paper to compensate for a poor grade. You can answer only one question per week. You do not have to do any outside research for any of the short responses. While grading, we will be asking the following questions:
(a) Are spelling and grammar adequate?
(b) Are there both an introduction and a conclusion?
(c) Is the essay well-structured? Does each paragraph develop one theme / idea? Are there effective transitions between paragraphs?
(d) Are there at least two brief (about sentence-length) quotations from the assigned text(s)?
(e) Are these quotations well integrated into the essay? Are they relevant? Do they come from different parts of the assigned text(s)?
(f) Does the essay reflect a careful reading of the assigned text(s) or does it discuss the topic very generally?
(g) Does the essay answer the question asked?
When quoting the assigned text(s) or referring to specific passages, you should identify the page numbers either in parenthesis or in a footnote.

SHORT PAPERS ON RTTP AND PROF. ELLENBLUM’S TALK:
Papers submitted late will receive a grade reduction of 30%. No late papers will be accepted after December 15th.

THE FINAL EXAM
The final exam might contain:
[1] Explanation of a passage or passages from primary sources.
