- Major cultural and political figures and events

Historical Method:
- What sources of information survive from the Byzantine Empire
- How the agendas of the medieval writers affected the texts they left for us
- How we can use their texts to figure out what happened
- Different methods contemporary historians use to analyze medieval data
- How the agendas of modern historians affect their presentation of the past

Practical Skills:
- Analytical reading
- Analytical writing
- Expository writing

Assessment

16% Discussion Participation
24% Three Quizzes: 8% each February 17, March 23, May 4
30% Two Historical Argument Papers based on primary source readings: 15% each. You chose 2 of 5 possible Historical Argument Papers, due in section in weeks 3, 5, 8, 10, 12. At least 1 of your choices must be before week 9.
30% Wikipedia Article Project
Assignments in Brief:

Participation: Come to discussion section prepared to discuss the assigned readings and participate in class discussion in a helpful manner. See participation assessment criteria below.

Three Quizzes: Brief multiple choice or matching exercises based on factual information.

Two Historical Argument Papers: These 4-5 page essays respond to questions about the primary source readings. Assignments are given for five major primary source readings; however you may choose to complete any TWO of these five assignments, of which ONE must be before week 9. This is an exercise in persuasive historical argumentation graded with the Historical Argument Grading Criteria.

Wikipedia Article Project: One well-researched, entirely substantiated and accurate paragraph pertaining to a Byzantine topic to be posted on Wikipedia. This is an exercise in objective narrative exposition graded with the Objective Narrative Grading Criteria. This project is broken down into the following phases:
4% Article Review: A review of an article in Wikipedia on a Byzantine topic using the Objective Narrative Grading Criteria. Due in Section Week 4
4% Topic choice & Critique: a proposal for a paragraph you plan to write/re-write explaining the problems with the existing one. Due in Section Week 6
4% Secondary Source Bibliography; Due in Section Week 7
4% Primary Source Bibliography; Due in Section Week 9
6% First Draft; Due in Section Week 11
8% Final Draft; Due in Section Week 15

Books:

Readings are to be done prior to the class of which they are listed.

Discussion Participation Grading Criteria

Characteristics of A participation:
These students always have read and understood all of the assignment. They always make interesting comments about the readings that help the class understand the material better. Their comments are clearly presented, to the point, and based on careful reading of the material.

Characteristics of A- participation:
These students have always read all of the assignment; except for very occasional lapses due to midterms or other life-trauma. Even then they have read part of the assignment. They make comments that are to the point and move the discussion forward.

Characteristics of B+ participation:
These students have always read the assignment, although they may have had difficulty understanding it. They occasionally make comments that are to the point and move the discussion forward.

Characteristics of B participation:
These students have usually read most of the assignment. They say things in class, from time to time, that are pertinent to the discussion.

Characteristics of B- participation:
These students have usually read at least some of the assignment. They rarely volunteer comments in class but can speak sensibly about the reading when called upon.

Characteristics of C participation:
There is no evidence that these students have read the assignment. Either they cannot participate in the discussion, or their comments are not based on the assigned readings. These students can participate when they have been given the opportunity to read in class and think about a specific question.

Characteristics of D participation:
These students will not say anything in class and cannot answer simple questions about the readings.

Characteristics of F participation:
These students do not come to class regularly. They do not bring the book or say anything when they do show up.

Class Policies

Practice Graciousness -- Act Honorably

NO CHEATING

When you lie or cheat for any reason you turn yourself into a liar and a cheater. Cheaters are bad and dishonorable people. They are placed in the tenth ditch of the eighth circle of hell in Dante's Inferno. There they are afflicted with loathsome and disgusting diseases. If you hand in someone else's work or copy someone else's work you are cheating and turning yourself into a lousy person. No grade in any class is worth becoming a bad person.

Those who are not dissuaded by moral exhortation but are caught cheating in any way will fail this class.

Dr. Neville’s Patent-Pending Draconian Late Paper Policy

Writing assignments are due at the beginning of class. No extensions will be given. Taking extra time with your papers is unfair. As with all tasks in life, do the best job you can with the time you have. Do not hand in your assignments late. Do not even think about handing in your assignments late.

As the flesh is weak, the following procedures are in place in order to deal with the unlikely event of a late paper. No assignment handed in late will receive a grade higher than C. The following scale applies:

1 Day late: A becomes C, A- = C-, B+ = D+, B = D, B- = D-, C = F
2 Days late: A becomes C-, A- = D+, B+ = D, B = D-, B- = F
3 Days late: A becomes D+, A- = D, B+ = D-, B = F
4 Days late: A becomes D, A- = D-, B+ = F
5 Days late: A becomes D-, A- = F
No papers more than five days late will be read.
