'Mau Mau' and Colonialism in Kenya

The seminar will explore the nature of colonialism in Kenya as revealed in the outbreak of the 'Mau Mau' movement. We will start by surveying the extensive literature on the subject prior to preparing research papers on different aspects of colonialism and revolt in Africa drawing on the extensive materials available for Kenya (and perhaps Zimbabwe).

Requirements: Students will be expected to write two papers during the course of the seminar: the first an extensive essay based on one of the topics (and literature) listed for weeks 1-9, and the second a major research paper (including a methodological appendix) on a select aspect of the overall topic. In each case, students should be prepared to distribute copies of their paper to the other seminar participants (with two copies to me) by Monday noon preceding the relevant class. Students will also be expected to write and present a critique of one of the research papers during weeks 10-15.

All required reading is available on reserve at H.C. White. The following are also available at the University Bookstore:

B. Berman & J. Lonsdale, Unhappy Valley (Books 1 & 2)
G. Kitching, Class & Economic Change in Kenya
T. Kanogo, Squatters & the Roots of Mau Mau
C. Leys, Underdevelopment in Kenya
Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Matigari
