

FEINGOLD SENATE COMMITTEE

Internship Opportunities Available for Fall 2009

United States Senator Russ Feingold is seeking qualified and motivated interns for the fall semester of 2009 in his Middleton campaign office. Interns are given a wide range of tasks and are guaranteed to learn a great deal about running a campaign for U.S. Senate. Strong writing, research, and organizational skills are required; having a positive attitude, being outgoing, and knowledge of computers are also appreciated. Scheduling is extremely flexible. All internships are unpaid and require a commitment of 8 to 12 hours per week.

Internship responsibilities may include:

- Assisting with fundraising and event planning
- Responding to constituent letters and concerns
- Assisting with various research projects
- Data entry and other administrative duties
- Helping advance events across Wisconsin

Please send a resume and cover letter to the address below ASAP.
