

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
Department of History

Semester 1 Year 1980-81

COURSE NO.	COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTOR
390	History of Wisconsin	Margaret R. Bogue

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This survey of Wisconsin history emphasizes major political, social and economic developments from the era of the explorations to the present, placing these in the context of American history.

LECTURES

Audio visual materials will be used in the lectures. Part of each of the two weekly hour and fifteen minute meetings will be devoted to discussion, based on assigned readings.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS and EXAMINATIONS

You will have the option of doing two shorter written reports or a term paper. There will be a mid course and a final examination.

GRADING SYSTEM

Standard A, AB, B, BC, C, D, F

REQUIRED READINGS

Robert C. Nesbit, Wisconsin, A History (Madison, 1973)
Justus F. and Barbara Paul, The Badger State: A Documentary History of Wisconsin (Grand Rapids, 1979)