

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON
Department of History

Semester I Year 84-85

COURSE NO.	COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTOR
403	Immigration and Assimilation in U.S. History	Archdeacon

COURSE DESCRIPTION

LECTURES

M,W 11-12:15 (F. 11-11:50 optional 4th credit hour: for those learning about computers)
Fourth credit students may take one-credit of instruction on using computers on data related to immigration or ethnicity. Or they may write a term paper.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS AND EXAMINATIONS

3 exams, equally weighted, non-cumulative, each covering approximately 1/3 of course.

GRADING SYSTEM

Three credit students: each test counts 1/3 of grade
Four credit students taking essay option; each test counts 1/4, as does term paper.

REQUIRED READINGS

T. Archdeacon, Becoming American
H. Diner, Erin's Daughters in America
S. Gould, The Mismeasure of Man
M. Piore, Birds of Passage