The elementary courses in Hebrew are planned on the basis of placement tests. These tests should be taken by all seniors who have chosen Hebrew as a foreign language. Students who wish to take the course in the Honors Program must pass the Honors Placement Test. Failure to pass the test will result in placement in the foreign language program.

Junior-Senior Honors Curriculum. Of the 28 credits in science of 102 or 282, 8 credits must be taken in 681, 682, 2 credits each, Senior Thesis.

The normal distribution requirements for the major will apply. Honors students will plan each semester's program with the Departmental Honors Advisor.

Major

The Hebrew Studies major may be earned with an emphasis in either modern or biblical Hebrew. The emphasis may be either an intensive study of the modern language, or a concentration in the study of the ancient language.

The biblical sequence requires a minimum of 25 credits in the Hebrew department above 201, 301, 302, 401, and 402. Minors in biblical Hebrew are required to complete the sequence of courses in biblical Hebrew.

Major in Hebrew Studies are encouraged to spend the junior year at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Students preparing to become teachers in elementary or high schools should consult the School of Education Bulletin.

Majors in Hebrew must be certified as competent in the biblical language by the department. One or more term papers written for courses in Hebrew will be required to demonstrate competency. Substitutions may be made with the approval of the Undergraduate Adviser in History.

Honors

To be accepted as a major in the Hebrew Studies major, the student must have an overall average of 3.0 or better in the Hebrew Studies major.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be taken at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

All courses must be taken under the direction of a Hebrew University instructor.

In Hebrew, the Honors Program requires a minimum of four years of study at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

Major in History

To be accepted in the Hebrew Studies major, the student must have an overall average of 3.0 or better in the Hebrew Studies major.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be taken at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

The challenge always is to learn about the human and to be able to write critically about the human.

A comprehensive examination will be given to all students at the end of their senior year. The examination will consist of a written and oral section. The written section will consist of a thesis and a seminar paper. The oral section will consist of a public presentation of the thesis and a seminar paper. The thesis will be evaluated according to the following criteria: 1. At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be taken at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

This examination will be held in the spring of the senior year.

All courses must be taken under the direction of a Hebrew University instructor.

In Hebrew, the Honors Program requires a minimum of four years of study at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

Major in History and Science

A minimum of 30 and a maximum of 40 credits in History and History of Science, distributed as follows:

1. At least one course must be taken in History and History of Science, and at least one must be in the History of the Third World (Africa, Asia, or Latin America).

2. At least four courses in the history of science must be taken from the 300-399 series.

3. At least 15 credits of upper level course work (as defined by each department) of which at least 6 must be in history courses and at least 6 must be in history of science.

4. Knowledge of a science is recommended.

Students should not take more than one major in the Department of History.

Honors Programs

To earn a B.A. or B.S. with Honors, majors in History must complete (a) the L & S general curriculum requirements, (b) the History major requirements, and (c) the junior-senior honors curriculum in the department.

Junior-Senior Honors Curriculum. Of the 28 credits in science of 102 or 282, 8 credits must be taken in 681, 682, 2 credits each, Senior Thesis.

The normal distribution requirements for the major will apply. Honors students will plan each semester's program with the Departmental Honors Advisor.

Major

The Hebrew Studies major may be earned with an emphasis in either modern or biblical Hebrew. The emphasis may be either an intensive study of the modern language, or a concentration in the study of the ancient language.

The biblical sequence requires a minimum of 25 credits in the Hebrew department above 201, 301, 302, 401, and 402. Minors in biblical Hebrew are required to complete the sequence of courses in biblical Hebrew.

Major in Hebrew Studies are encouraged to spend the junior year at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Students preparing to become teachers in elementary or high schools should consult the School of Education Bulletin.

Majors in Hebrew must be certified as competent in the biblical language by the department. One or more term papers written for courses in Hebrew will be required to demonstrate competency. Substitutions may be made with the approval of the Undergraduate Adviser in History.

Honors

To be accepted as a major in the Hebrew Studies major, the student must have an overall average of 3.0 or better in the Hebrew Studies major.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be taken at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

The challenge always is to learn about the human and to be able to write critically about the human.

A comprehensive examination will be given to all students at the end of their senior year. The examination will consist of a written and oral section. The written section will consist of a thesis and a seminar paper. The oral section will consist of a public presentation of the thesis and a seminar paper. The thesis will be evaluated according to the following criteria: 1. At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be taken at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

The challenge always is to learn about the human and to be able to write critically about the human.

A comprehensive examination will be given to all students at the end of their senior year. The examination will consist of a written and oral section. The written section will consist of a thesis and a seminar paper. The oral section will consist of a public presentation of the thesis and a seminar paper. The thesis will be evaluated according to the following criteria: 1. At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be taken at Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

At least one course in the Hebrew Studies major must be a course in the program of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem or the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

The challenge always is to learn about the human and to be able to write critically about the human.