UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
MADISON

BULLETIN

COLLEGE OF LETTERS
AND SCIENCE
The Hebrew studies major may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Honors Program

The Hebrews Honor's curriculum comprises 22 credits, of which five credits are in Hebrew. Students who successfully complete this program may be admitted to a more advanced course.

The Hebrews Language and Literature

The Hebrews major may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Minor in Modern Hebrew

The Hebrews minor may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Certification of Proficiency in Expository English

The Hebrews major may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Major in History

The Hebrews major may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Minor in Biblical Studies

The Hebrews minor may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Minor in Modern Hebrew

The Hebrews minor may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Certification of Proficiency in Expository English

The Hebrews major may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.

Major in History

The Hebrews major may be earned in one of two ways, either as a secondary major or as a concentration in the department.
Juniors-Seniors Honors Curriculum. Of the 6 credit hours required for the major, at least 3 must be in the undergraduate college (572, 687, 721, 727, 724, 774). The student must fulfill one of the following: (a) the History major with a grade-point average of at least 3.5 and a grade-point average of at least 3.5 in the Department of History. (b) The student must complete 6 credits of Senior Honors History (History 685-692 or History of Science 681-692).

Honors candidates majoring in other departments who are not majors in history may still take any of the honors classes offered in the history department with the approval of the Honors program director.