UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN Department of History Semester I, 1984-85

History 111 Ancient Near East and Greece Mr. Clover

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will consider the destinies of civilization in Western Eurasia from the eighth through the first millennium B.C. Special attention will be given to the following subjects:

- (1) The birth of agriculture and cities in the Near East (ca. 8000-3000 B.C.; and
 - the first urban civilizations during the Near Eastern and eastern Mediterranean Bronze Age (ca. 3000-1200 B.C.);
- (2) civilization in the Near East during the early Iron Age (ca. 1200-500 B.C.);
- (3) civilization in Greek World during the early Iron Age (ca. 1200-500 B.C.);
- (4) the Classic Age of Greek Civilization (ca. 500-330 B.C.) and,
- (5) the conquests of Alexander the Great and the juncture of Greek and Near Eastern Civilization after his death (ca. 330-100 B.C.).

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN Department of History

History 111 TEXTBOOK REQUIREMENTS FOR SEMESTER I, 1984-85 Mr. Clover ANCIENT NEAR EAST & GREECE

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:

- Paul J. Alexander, THE ANCIENT WORLD TO A.D. 300, Macmillan Co. Paperback
- J. Wilson, THE CULTURE OF ANCIENT EGYPT, U. of Chicago Press--Phoenix Paperback P 11
- W. F. Albright, BIBLICAL PERIOD FROM ABRAHAM TO EZRA, Harper & Row Torchbook TB 102
- R. Sealey, HISTORY OF THE GREEK STATES, 700-338 B.C., U. of California Press--Campus Paperback no. 165
- R. Lattimore, GREEK LYRICS, U. of Chicago Press--Phoenix Paperback P 48

OPTIONAL:

- J. Chadwick, THE MICENAEAN WORLD, Cambridge University Press Paperback
- P. Matthias, EBLA: AN EMPIRE REDISCOVERED, Doubleday & Co. (hardback)
- JERUSALEM BIBLE: READER'S EDITION, Doubleday & Co. Paperback
- E. R. Dodds, THE GREEKS AND THE IRRATIONAL, U. of California Press--paperback #CAL 74
- Aristophanes, FOUR COMEDIES: LYSISTRATA, CONGRESSWOMEN, ACHARNIANS, FROGS, U. of Michigan Press--Ann Arbor Paperback #AA 152
- F. W. Walbank, THE HELLENISTIC WORLD, Harvard University Press Paperback