

University of Wisconsin-Madison, Department of History
Fall 2013
HISTORY 457: HISTORY OF SOUTHEAST ASIA BEFORE 1800
Thongchai Winichakul
Tue Thur 9:30-10:45 Rm. 1217 the George Mosse Humanities Bldg.

Located between the Chinese and Indic civilizations, Southeast Asia has been a region of striking diversity where for more than two thousand years the complex indigenous cultures encountered with and were enriched by the world's major influences – from major religions like Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, and Confucianism to Western influences. Yet what makes the region distinctive is also the subtle commonality of local polities, societies and cultures. The complex traditions which have shaped the history of the region are very much alive today despite colonization and Westernization over the past hundred years.

This class explores both the important phases of changes and major issues before colonialism. Among the issues covered in this class are the early settlements, state formation and development, influences from the Indic, Chinese, and Western civilizations, the region as part of world trade system since the 13th c. to the European expansion of sea power.
