

UW-Madison, Department of History

2020 Writing Prize Application Form for Graduated Students

If you have graduated from UW-Madison within the previous year (spring of 2019, summer of 2019, or winter of 2019) you are still eligible to be considered for the Department of History’s writing prizes. To submit your work, please fill out this form completely and provide any supplemental material that is requested in the form. Email this form and attachments to Sophie Olson (solson25@wisc.edu) by Monday, March 16th, 2020. In the subject line of your email, put “Application for History Department Writing Prize.” To view a list of the writing prizes that are offered, visit the History Department website.

ALL FIELDS ARE REQUIRED

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

Major: _____

Degree conferred (month, year): _____

What is the title of your paper? _____

Which class was this paper written for? _____

Which faculty member supervised this paper? _____

Does your paper utilize film or video as primary sources? Yes _____ No _____

Does your paper focus on German and/or Jewish history? Yes _____ No _____

Is the paper that you are submitting a senior thesis? Yes _____ No _____

If your paper is a senior thesis, you are eligible to be considered for the Harrington Prize. To be considered, please request a letter of recommendation from your thesis advisor. Write their name below, and have them submit the letter to Sophie Olson (solson25@wisc.edu) by the March 16th due date.

Name of thesis advisor: _____

• • • • •

Once this form is completed, please save and email it along with your paper (in PDF or Microsoft Word format) to Sophie Olson (solson25@wisc.edu). The selection committee will choose the most appropriate prize(s) for consideration based on your answers in this form as well as the subject and quality of your writing.