

Khine Thant Su

University of Wisconsin-Madison
Department of History
ktsu@wisc.edu

EDUCATION

PhD Candidate, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Field: Southeast Asia; minor field: Intellectual History

M.A., 2019, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Thesis: "Moral Reform as Method of Social Reform: The Evolution of U Nu's Political Thought (1937-1960)"

Committee: Anne Hansen, chair; Alfred McCoy and Viren Murthy, members.

B.A., 2016, Middlebury College

East Asian Studies (concentration on Chinese), cum Laude

Thesis: "Cold War Relations between PRC and Burma (1962-1976)"

Study Abroad: Zhejiang University of Technology, Hangzhou, China, 2014

AWARDS AND GRANTS INTERNAL TO UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Kate Everest Levi Second-Year Paper Prize (Fall 2019)

Institute for Regional and International Studies (IRIS) Summer Fieldwork Award (Summer 2019)

Center for Southeast Asian Studies Field Research Grant (Summer 2019)

History Department Travel Award (Summer 2019)

Graduate School Fellowship (Aug. 2017-May 2018)

PRESENTATIONS AND TALKS

Conference Papers

"Moral Reform as Method of Social Reform: Burma under U Nu (1948-1960)." Midwest Conference on Asian Affairs Annual Conference. Saint Paul, MN (Oct. 2018)

UNIVERSITY TEACHING

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Wisconsin-Madison (Aug. 2018- present)

Courses Taught:

History 244: Introduction to Southeast Asia: Vietnam to the Philippines

History 246: Southeast Asian Refugees of the Cold War

PUBLICATIONS

Non-academic articles

“Sino-Soviet Nuclear Relations: An Alliance of Convenience?” Woodrow Wilson Center History and Public Policy Program. 2017.

“U.S.-Myanmar Military-to-Military Relations: Challenges Ahead.” Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), New Perspectives in Foreign Policy. 2017.

LANGUAGES

Burmese: native level fluency in reading and writing

Mandarin Chinese: advanced reading

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Association of Asian Studies

Burma Studies Group