Students who wish to pursue a Minor in Medieval Studies must reach agreement on an appropriate plan of study with a MSP faculty member, who serves as the minor advisor. This agreement must be in place and approved by the Director of Medieval Studies Program and the Graduate Program Coordinator of the History Department prior to the beginning of coursework.

The Minor must consist of at least 9 credits of graduate-level work from the list of eligible courses. Only courses numbered above 700 or that carry the "Graduate Level Indicator" may be used to meet program requirements. To ensure interdisciplinary study, courses must be selected from at least two different subject listings. To ensure breadth of study beyond a student's focused doctoral research, courses must be selected from subject listings offered outside the student's home department or program.
