

Medieval Studies Doctoral Minor Form

Please submit the completed form to History Graduate Program staff.

Students who wish to pursue the doctoral minor in Medieval Studies should consult with a Medieval Studies Program faculty member who will serve as the minor advisor. The Medieval Studies minor consists of at least 9 credits of graduate-level work from the approved course list published in Guide. Only graduate-level courses may be used to meet program requirements (courses numbered above 300 with the 50% graduate attribute or seminars numbered above 700).

To ensure interdisciplinary study, courses must be selected from at least two different subject listings. To ensure breadth of study beyond a student's focused doctoral research, courses must be selected from subject listings offered outside the student's home department or program.
